

IPRRG 2019 Proposal

Institute of Plant Protection - NRI

- The main role of IPP-NRI is to conduct research providing the basis of plant protection and control systems.
- The IPP-NRI submitted to the Ministry of Agriculture and Rural Development is recognized as a center of excellence in agriculture research.

Institute of Plant Protection - NRI

- Departments:
  - Entomology
  - Zoology
  - Mycology
  - Virology and Bacteriology
  - Biological Pest Control
  - Pesticide Residue Research
  - Weed Science and Plant Protection Techniques
  - Ecology and Environment Protection
  - Agrophages' Forecasting Methods and Agricultural Economics
  - Plant Protection Products Investigation
  - Research Centre of Quarantine, Invasive and Genetically Modified Organisms
  - Bank of Plant Pathogens and Biodiversity Research

PUBLICATIONS:

ISSN 1427-4345

Journal of Plant Protection Research

Vol. 49, No 1 (March 2009)

Quarterly published by the Polish Society of Plant Protection, the Committee of Plant Protection of the Polish Academy of Sciences and the Institute of Plant Protection – National Research Institute (Poznań–Warsaw, Poland)

ISSN 1427-4337

Progress in Plant Protection Postępy w Ochronie Roślin

Vol.47, No.1 (2007)

Published by the Institute of Plant Protection,
the Committee of Plant Protection of the Polish Academy of Sciences and the Polish Society of Plant Protection (Poznań–Warsaw, Poland)

Where we are?

LOKALIZACJA JEDNOSTEK ORGANIZACYJNYCH IOR

- Siedziba Główna IOR
- Oddział IOR w Sońnicowicach
- △ Terenowe Stacje Doświadczalne
- Rolniczy Zakład Doświadczalny w Winnej Górze

Where we are?

Getting to Poznan

By plane

- Munich
- Frankfurt
- Paris Beauvais
- London
Luton/Stansted
- Bristol
- Liverpool
- Doncaster
- Dublin
- Edinburgh
- Copenhagen
- Oslo
- Stockholm
- Malmo
- Warsaw
- Rome
- Lvov
- Kiev
- Barcelona
- Alicante
- Madrid
- Athens

By train

- PKP (the Polish Railways) offers direct connections from Poznan to Berlin, Düsseldorf, Frankfurt (Main), Munich, Nuremberg, Cologne, Amsterdam, Kiev, Moscow, Odessa, Minsk, Petersburg and to Krym.

By car

- Some important international road routes intersect in Poznań: E-30 - Berlin - Warsaw - Moscow and E-261 - Gdańsk - Wrocław - Prague

Meeting venue and accommodation

Poznan

- The city population is about 550,000
- Poznań is a centre of trade, sports, education, technology and tourism
- It is an important academic site, with about 130,000 students and the Adam Mickiewicz University - the third largest Polish university
- The city also hosts the Poznań International Fair – the biggest industrial fair in Poland and one of the largest fairs in Europe

What to see?

Old Square – What is worth to see: old Town Hall, Archaeological Museum, and Lesser Basilica of St. Stanislaus. Old Square is also Poznań's nightlife centre. Moreover, in adjacent streets you will find a lot of places with great variety of food and drinks.

What to see?

Poznań Cathedral and Cathedral
Island– oldest church in Poznań
with probable grave of first
Polish king

What to see?

Imperial District (or Kaiser District) – it is well preserved place in Poznań with many historical buildings and parks in city centre. The main building is Castle – residence of Kaiser Whilhem II is now cultural centre with a lot of pubs and restaurants. There are also numerous, constantly changing exhibitions (e.g. Word Press Photo, paintings of various artist), movie projections, theaters and meetings.

What to see?

In front of the Castle there is Museum of Enigma and Monument of Polish Cryptographers who cracked first Enigma before II World War, and their discoveries were base for Alan Turing to develop algorithms which cracked German ciphers. Next to Castle stands Poznań University main building – monumental Collegium Minus with it's Concert Hall and Old Building of Collegium Iuridicum. Other buildings worth to see in Kaiser District are: Opera House, Collegium Maius (former Biology Faculty) and Music Academy.

What to see?

Military Forts and Citadel Park – there are numerous forts spread around the city opened to visitors. The biggest park in Poznań – Citadel, is also a fort and a place for leisure activities popular among citizens. You will find there a lot of monuments, rose garden, amphitheater, military museums and cemeteries (there are even graves of soldiers who took part in The Great Escape)

What to see?

Old and New Zoo – there are two zoological garden in Poznań. So called Old Zoo (free of charge) is located in city centre near Kaiser District. It is very small, however it is worth to see because of it new herpetological pavilion (2 Euro) with lot of Amphibians and Reptiles (especially the magnificent Comodo Dragons). New Zoo (3,5 Euro Weekdays, 5 Euro Weekends) is large and main attractions are: Giraffes, Rhinos, Elephants, Tigers, Bison, African Birds and many many others.

What to see?

Palm House – nearly 5000 sq meters of various zones plants and aquariums hosted in 11 pavilions. One of best places to chill out in Poznań. Entrance fee – around 2 Euro (or sightseeing with guide: 13 Euro for group up to 30 pers.)

What to see?

Botanical Garden – free entrance. Over 20 ha and 7 000
plant species

What to see?

The National Park of Wielkopolska is located around 15 km south of Poznań and has a very convenient bus and train connection with this city (Poznań- Wrocław rail line), and through Poznań, thanks to many fast trains, also with Warsaw.

18 areas of strict preservation were created within the Park, with a total area of 260ha. They preserve various forms of postglacial landscape and the most pristine flora complexes, as well as the animals living there. The protected area also encompasses 32 tree monuments and an erratic boulder.

See You in Poznan